

Exhibit B to Registration Statement
Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements, or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic Exhibit B form at <http://www.fara.gov>.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the Registration Unit's webpage: <http://www.fara.gov>. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public in print and online at: <http://www.fara.gov>.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .33 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Counterespionage Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Giorgi Bokeria
National Security Council of Georgia
Ingorokva St. 7
Tbilisi, Georgia

Dear Giorgi:

I am writing to confirm the arrangements with regard to the work the Podesta Group will perform on behalf of the National Security Council of Georgia. The Podesta Group agrees to provide lobbying, government relations, public relations, and media management services to Georgia, which services shall consist of those ordinarily and customarily provided in representing a foreign sovereign before the United States Congress, the Executive Branch, and the media.

Summary and Terms of Representation

1. The term of this agreement is July 1, 2011, through December 31, 2011. This agreement will automatically renew for the period January 1, 2012 through July 31, 2012, with both parties agreeing to meet during November 2011 to discuss scope of work and fees.
2. For all services rendered by the firm, the Podesta Group will be paid a fee of $300,000 for the initial six-month term, which amount does not include any applicable Georgian taxes; any such taxes will be the responsibility of the National Security Council of Georgia. Fees will be billed no later than the twentieth day of the month, one month ahead, and are due on the fifteenth day of the following month. Any additional expenses, upon the prior approval by the National Security Council of Georgia, including, but not limited to, international travel, public relations subscriptions and the like are passed through at cost and are payable by wire within thirty (30) days of receipt. Wire instructions are as follows:

3. Any dispute arising out of this agreement shall be governed by the laws of the District of Columbia and the United States, without regard to principles of law that would require the application of the laws of another jurisdiction.
4. As permitted by other applicable United States laws and regulations, the Podesta Group shall provide the National Security Council of Georgia with government affairs representation before the federal government of the United States and the United States Congress, and such other services as the parties mutually agree shall be provided under this agreement.
5. The Podesta Group shall use its best efforts to avoid any and all behavior which might damage the Government of Georgia's reputation or which in any way might adversely affect the interests, reputation or assets of the Government of Georgia.
6. The Podesta Group will use all permissible efforts to protect privileged communications or other confidential information developed by the Podesta Group or provided to the Podesta Group during the course of the Podesta Group's provision of services described above. This obligation will survive the termination of this agreement. However, nothing in this provision is intended to prevent the Podesta Group from complying with all applicable laws and regulations of the United States.
7. The Agreement may be terminated by either party in writing by observing a notice period of one month. Should this Agreement terminate prior to its natural expiration, any fees paid to the Podesta Group by the National Security Council of Georgia that exceed the pro-rata share of earned fees apportioned on a daily basis up to the date of termination shall be refunded by the Podesta Group to the National Security Council of Georgia.
8. The Podesta Group shall comply with any and all restrictions and requirements of the Foreign Agents Registration Act, and any other applicable laws and regulations of the United States.
9. The Podesta Group and Podesta Group employees shall not be liable to the National Security Council of Georgia for any loss incurred by the National Security Council of Georgia in connection with this agreement, except a loss resulting from willful misconduct or gross negligence by the Podesta Group or by Podesta Group employees. The Podesta Group shall not be liable to the National Security Council of Georgia for any special, incidental, indirect, punitive, or consequential loss or damage of any nature, arising at any time or from any cause.
10. The National Security Council of Georgia shall indemnify the Podesta Group and Podesta Group employees against liabilities, losses, damages, claims, causes of action, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) to which the Podesta Group may become subject to arising out of this agreement. The National Security Council of Georgia shall not indemnify the Podesta Group to the extent any liability, loss, damage, claim, cause of action, or expense results solely from the Podesta Group's or the Podesta Group's employees' willful misconduct or gross negligence.
11. The National Security Council of Georgia recognizes that the Podesta Group brings to this agreement pre-existing know-how, skill, techniques, trade secrets, knowledge, methods, forms, designs, and other intellectual property and materials (the "Pre-Existing Materials") to assist the Podesta Group in the performance of the services under this agreement. The National Security Council of Georgia agrees and acknowledges that these Pre-Existing Materials are and shall remain the sole and exclusive property of the Podesta Group.

12. During the life of this agreement and for six months after termination of this agreement, the National Security Council of Georgia agrees not to hire or solicit for hire as employee or independent contractor, any person currently employed or engaged by the Podesta Group who provides any services to the National Security Council of Georgia during the life of this agreement, without the prior written consent of the Podesta Group.

13. If any provision of this agreement is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be fully severable and the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

If this agreement is satisfactory to you, please sign below, retain a copy for your files and return a copy to us. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call. We look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

Kimberley Fritts
CEO
